

International Tourism Festival

Suzhou, a top Jiangsu destination, holds a series of tourism festivals throughout the year. This year's festival will take place during the month of April. Be sure to participate!

Suzhou welcomes tourists

During the month of April (2010), the Suzhou International Tourism Festival will start. This annual event attracts residents, tourists and government officials. People from all over the Yangtze River Delta and China are invited to participate in this event of lights and show, culture and pride.

The event will start with a round-table discussion between tourism-related government agencies of Suzhou and the Yangtze River Delta, discussions will cover topics such as the integration of resources and improvements.

The opening ceremony of the festival with decorated ferries at Guxumen Plaza and on Huancheng River will begin once the sun goes down.

The ceremony will feature 19 beautifully decorated ferries from different parts of China and abroad. The ferry parade will also include a series of light displays and live performances from dancers aboard.

The banks surrounding the ferry parade will also be decorated with a huge LED screen to give spectators a better view of the celebration as it goes on around them.

Take advantage of the event and opportunity and visit Suzhou! Shows and cultural performances will be held around the city,

To taste Jiangsu is to know China ®
